A WORKING GUIDE TO THE 78 CARDS

The Seventy-Eight Workbook

78 cards. 78 questions.
One place to write it down.

BEFORE YOU START

How to use this workbook

This is not a book to read once. It is 78 prompts and the paper to answer them on.

1. One card at a time. Draw in the morning if you can, write for ten minutes, then close the book. The closing is part of the method.

2. Describe before you interpret. Name the figure, the object, the weather. Then write what it reminds you of, and be specific. The first specific thing is usually the useful one.

3. Keep the sentence unfinished. "This looks like the part where…" will teach you more than "this means…".

4. Date every page. A reading you cannot date is a reading you cannot check.

5. Come back in a month. Read your own words before you read the card again. Add one line in a different pen.

No page in this book predicts an event. A card describes a question worth asking, and the answer is the part you write. Nothing here is medical, legal or financial advice.

If your card lands reversed

Every entry is written from the upright image. If your card comes out reversed, start with the short line under the prompt, then answer the same three questions from there. Reversed is not the opposite of a card. It is the same card asking from a different angle, usually the angle you would rather not take.

What you need: this book, a pen, one question. Nothing else.

Eight of Wands 36
Nine of Wands 37
Ten of Wands 38
Page of Wands 39
Knight of Wands 40
Queen of Wands 41
King of Wands 42

How the numbers work. Ace to Ten is a movement, not a score. The Ace starts the suit, the middle cards complicate it, the Ten carries the result. Page, Knight, Queen and King are four ways of holding the same element, not four ranks of importance.

MAJOR ARCANA · 0

The Fool

BEGINNING · OPENNESS · RISK

A start without a map. The card does not promise the step will work; it asks whether you are willing to take it before you know the whole route.

> REVERSED hesitation · recklessness

Three questions

1. What would you try if you did not have to explain it first?
2. Which part of this is excitement, and which part is not looking?
3. What is the smallest version of the step?
